Dear Ministers,

Re: Australia's Grain Trading Relationship with China

I am writing ahead of the visit to Australia by Chinese Premier, Mr Li Keqiang, to advise you of the importance to the Australian Grains Industry of the relationship between Australia and China.

The bi-lateral relationship between Australia and China is underpinned by trade between the two countries. To this end, Grain Trade Australia (GTA) and the broader grains industry support the Australian Government's continued efforts to promote a free trade environment in support of Australian export industries.

We believe it is important that agriculture be a key agenda item for the upcoming bi-lateral meetings. Australia exports $A8.9 billion of agricultural produce to China, including $A 2.9 billion (31%) of grains and oilseeds.

1. About Grain Trade Australia (GTA)

By way of introduction, Grain Trade Australia (GTA) is a focal point for the commercial grains industry within Australia. It facilitates trade and works to provide an efficient, equitable and open trading environment by providing leadership, advocacy and commercial services to the Australian grain value chain.

GTA members are responsible for over 95% of all grain storage and freight movements made each year in Australia. Over 95% of the grain contracts executed in Australia each year refer to GTA grain standards and/or trade rules.

GTA members are drawn from all sectors of the grain value chain from production to domestic end users and exporters. GTA members are involved in grain trading activities, grain storage, logistics and domestic processing (flour milling, stock feed & malting). GTA members also provide a significant number of jobs to the agricultural sector, particularly in rural and regional Australia.

GTA conducts an advisory Trade and Market Access Committee, comprising representatives from across the Grains Industry, including Grain Producers Australia, Grain Growers Limited, Australian Oilseeds Federation, Grains Industry Market Access Forum, CBH Group, Australian Grain Exporters Association, GrainCorp and Pulse Australia. A list of GTA Members is attached.

2. Australia / China Grain Trading Relationship

The Australian grains industry is one of Australia's largest agricultural export industries. The Australian Grains Industry is valued at around $13.9 billion (farm gate value), including 32.7 million metric tonnes (mmt) of exports valued at over $A11.8 billion (on a five year average). China is an extremely important and significant market for the Australian Grains Industry, with exports valued at over $A2.9 billion per year, which represents around 23% of value of Australia's grain exports.

Australia is a major supplier to China exporting approximately 6-7.0 million tonnes annually of barley, wheat, sorghum, canola and pulses. These grains and oilseeds are used in a variety of products in China including Malt Barley for beer production; wheat flour production for various products including noodles, dumplings and steamed buns; sorghum for alcohol production commonly called Baijiu; canola crushing for the retail vegetable oil market and as raw materials in various stock feed applications. Given the economic growth resulting in a rapidly growing middle class and changing dietary preferences, large population and proximity of China, it is considered to be an extremely important market to the future growth and success of the Australian Grains Industry.

3. Current Issues

In addition to the arrangements in place surrounding the China-Australia Free Trade Agreement (ChAFTA), Australia has in place a number of trade protocols with China. The purpose of these protocols is to facilitate the trade of grain and to ensure issues of quarantine concern are managed in a mutually beneficial manner and in accordance with requirements of international trade rules, including WTO and FTA obligations.

To this end, Australia has recently been experiencing some technical difficulties with the Australian-China Wheat and Barley Protocol, in particular regarding pests of quarantine concern. The Industry has been working in close collaboration with the Department of Agriculture and Water Resources (DAWR) and DFAT to promote the successful implementation of these protocols, but would welcome and encourage Australian Government Ministers to emphasise the importance of these trade flows to the Australia and Chinese bi-lateral trade relationship. Further information as to the details of the grain trading protocols can be provided upon request.

4. Industry Promotion

For your information, the Australian Grains Industry, through its Australian Grains Industry Conference (AGIC) series is holding an AGIC Asia Conference in Shanghai in early March 2107. This will be supported by Roundtable Meetings with several important and influential sectors of Chinese industry and local Government agencies in both Shanghai and Beijing. These activities follow two very successful AGIC events in Beijing and Guangzhou in 2016.

We would also like to acknowledge the Australian Government's support of these activities, including Post, Consular and Austrade support and participation in these events. Such support is important to maintaining and growing this important market for the Australian Industry and importantly for Australia's grain growers.

5. Government's Position for Industry Growth

On behalf of the Australian Grains Industry, I would like to acknowledge and welcome further support of the Australian Government in promoting the bi-lateral trade between Australia and China and would encourage the Government to continue to encourage and promote market access arrangements for the Australian Grains Industry to China.

Yours Sincerely

Peter Reading
Chairman
Grain Trade Australia
