TRADE RULES

Rule 1.0 APPLICATION OF RULES

- 1) These Rules apply in so far as they have been incorporated into the contract between the parties.
- 2) The parties may expressly vary or exclude the application of these Rules in the contract.
- 3) In the event of any conflict between these Rules and the Dispute Resolution Rules, these Rules will govern.
- 4) The Australian Grain Industry Code of Practice is not incorporated into and does not form part of these Trade Rules.

Rule 2.0 ENTIRE AGREEMENTS AND VARIATION

- 1) The contract terms represent the entire agreement between the parties to the exclusion of any preceding drafts, negotiations and/or representations.
- 2) Any variation to the express terms must be mutually agreed in writing.

Rule 3.0 BROKERAGE

Rule 3.1 Powers of a Broker

- 1) A Broker's Note shall be prima facie evidence of the terms of the contract between the parties. To the extent of any inconsistency between a Broker's Note and a document generated by a party, the Broker's Note shall prevail. For the avoidance of doubt, a Broker is not a party to the contract and does not represent or act as agent for either party.
- 2) A Broker has the power to bind two Principals only to the extent of their instructions and the Principals are not liable for any acts of the Broker in excess of such instructions.
- 3) A Broker who, in good faith or otherwise, exceeds its authority is liable for resulting damages.
- 4) A Broker who, in good faith, negotiates a contract which is in accordance with instructions from both Principals, who, at the time of negotiations, advises each Principal the name of the other, and who completes such negotiations in accordance with the rules and customs governing such transactions, thereby fulfils all obligations and has no further liability to either of the Principals. A contract so negotiated is valid and binding between the Buyer and the Seller the same as if it had been negotiated directly between them.

Rule 3.2 Payment of Brokerage

- 1) Brokerage shall be deemed to be earned on the issuance of a Broker's Note.
- 2) Brokerage shall be credited when the deliveries or shipments are invoiced or when the contract is otherwise performed or terminated.
- 3) Brokerage commission shall be paid by the Seller on the mean contract quantity. Such brokerage or commission shall be due upon presentation of proper invoice.

Rule 4.0 TIME

Time shall be of the essence.

Rule 5.0 QUANTITY

Unless otherwise agreed, all quantities shall be expressed metrically and to the nearest one/one-hundredth [1/100] of a tonne.

Rule 6.0 QUANTITY TOLERANCE

The Seller shall have the option of delivering five percent [5.0%] or twelve [12.00] tonnes, whichever is the lesser quantity, more or less than the contractual quantity at the contract price.

Rule 6.1 Overfills and Underfills

- 1) Any quantity delivered in excess of the upper Tolerance shall be deemed a breach of contract and entitle the Buyer to reject the difference between the delivered tonnage and mean contract tonnage if they so wish. The Seller then has the following options available with agreement of the Buyer:
 - i) Allocate the excess commodity tonnage against any other existing contract; or,
 - ii) Accept the relevant daily cash price for the excess commodity tonnage on the day of delivery, or,
 - iii) Accept the Buyer's rejection and any incurred removal expenses.
- 2) Any overfill on a truck shall be priced by the Buyer at the current afternoon market price at the close of the day that the truck is unloaded.
- 3) In the absence of a clearly stipulated applicable tolerance in the confirmation of the quantity traded, it shall be understood that any underfill or overfill on a rail commodity shall be settled at the market value at the close of the first Business Day following the date of load or unload, whichever weight is applicable, of the last railcar in fulfillment of the contract.
- 4) If the Seller delivers less than the minimum quantity permitted by the Tolerance it shall be deemed to be in default and shall compensate the Buyer in accordance with Rule 17.0 [Default].
- 5) Calculation of damages shall be against the mean contract quantity.

Rule 7.0 WEIGHTS

- 1) Unless specifically agreed otherwise, Destination Weights, which shall be determined at a Registered Weighbridge, shall be final and the basis of trade. If these are not available, loading point weights shall be accepted. Errors in weighbridge tickets in all cases shall be excepted.

Rule 7.1 Destination Weights

- 1) Destination Weights shall be determined at the point of un-load on a Registered Weighbridge and notice of weights given by the Buyer to the Seller without delay.
- 2) Unless otherwise agreed, when a commodity is sold basis Destination Weights, Weight Certificates shall be supplied by and at the expense of the Buyer and such Weight Certificates shall be final and binding on both parties.
- 3) A commodity sold on specific Destination Weights may not be diverted by the Buyer to a destination where Registered Weighbridge weights are not available, except with permission of the Seller and must be confirmed in writing.

Rule 7.2 Origination Weights

- 1) Origination Weights shall be determined at the point of loading on a Registered Weighbridge and notice of the weights given by the Seller to the Buyer without delay.

- 2) Unless otherwise agreed, when a commodity is sold basis Origination Weights, Weight Certificates shall be supplied by and at the expense of the Seller and such Weight Certificates shall be final and binding on both parties.

Rule 8.0 QUALITY

- 1) Unless specifically agreed otherwise, Destination Quality shall be the basis of trade, and shall be determined by and according to Grades, Standards and sampling and analyses procedures established by GTA. If these are not available, point of loading or Origination Quality shall be accepted.

Rule 8.1 Destination Quality

- 1) Destination Quality shall be determined at the point of un-load and notice of quality given by the Buyer to the Seller without delay. Unless otherwise agreed, where a commodity is sold basis Destination Quality, Quality Certificates shall be supplied by and at the expense of the Buyer and such Certificates shall be final and binding on both parties.
- 2) A commodity sold on specific Destination Quality may not be diverted by the Buyer to a destination where qualified Quality Grades are not available except with permission of the Seller and must be confirmed in writing.

Rule 8.2 Origination Quality

- 1) Origination Quality shall be determined at the point of loading and notice of quality given by the Seller to the Buyer without delay.
- 2) Unless otherwise agreed, where a commodity is sold basis Origination Quality, Quality Certificates shall be supplied by and at the expense of the Seller and such Certificates shall be final and binding on both parties.

Rule 9.0 SELLERS' WARRANTIES

The Seller warrants that the commodity complies with all State and Federal Laws and requirements relating to chemical, pesticide residues, Genetically Modified Organisms' (GMO's), varietal declarations and all other conditions required by these Trade Rules, the contract, or law.

Rule 10.0 CERTIFICATES

- 1) Unless otherwise agreed, any Certificates required, other than Weight and Quality Certificates, pursuant to the Terms of the Contract Confirmation shall be supplied by and at the expense of the Seller and such Certificates shall be final and binding on both parties.
- 2) Weight Certificates shall be supplied pursuant to Rule 7 [Weights] of these GTA Trade Rules
- 3) Quality Certificates shall be supplied pursuant to Rule 8 [Quality] of these GTA Trade Rules

Rule 11.0 BUSINESS DAYS

Should the time for doing any act or giving any notice under the contract expire on a non-Business Day, the time so limited shall be extended until the first Business Day thereafter. The period of Delivery or Shipment shall not be affected by this Rule.

Rule 12.0 TIME OF DELIVERY OR SHIPMENT

Where time is calculated "from" a particular day, that day is not counted in the computation of time.

Rule 13.0 CONVEYANCE AND DELIVERY INSTRUCTIONS

Unless otherwise agreed, the Seller shall have the right of conveyance.

Rule 13.1 Buyers Call

- 1) The term Buyer's Call when used in a contract means that the Buyer shall have the right of conveyance. The Seller shall have not less than fifteen [15] Calendar Days or such other time specified in the contract after receipt of Delivery Instructions from the Buyer in which to make Delivery or Shipment.
- 2) Once tendered under Rule 13.1.1 Delivery Instructions may only be varied by the Buyer at the Buyer's expense.
- 3) For the avoidance of doubt, Rule 13.2 has no application to a contract designated Buyer's Call.

Rule 13.2 Delivery Instructions

- 1) In cases of a contract for other than Buyer's Call, Loaded, Immediate, or Prompt instructions for Delivery, the Seller shall give the Buyer not less than seven [7] Business Days written notice of commencement of Delivery. Upon receipt of such notice, the Buyer shall give the Seller written Delivery Instructions not less than five [5] Business Days prior to the commencement of Delivery.
- 2) In cases of a contract with terms Ex-Store, Ex-Farm or Free On Board instructions for Delivery, other than contracts with Loaded, Immediate, or Prompt instructions, the Buyer shall give the Seller not less than seven [7] Business Days written notice of intent to present appropriate transportation for the commencement of loading., Upon receipt of such notice, the Seller shall give the Buyer written Delivery Instructions, not less than five [5] Business Days prior to the commencement of loading
- 3) Once tendered under Rule 13.2(1) or 13.2(2), Delivery Instructions may only be varied by the Buyer at the Buyer's expense.

Rule 13.3 Delivery in More than One Consignment

Where goods are Delivered in more than one consignment, the contract shall be deemed to be a separate contract in respect of each consignment. The Buyer shall not be entitled to reject an entire consignment because of any default occurring in some other consignment on the same contract.

Rule 13.4 Delinquent Payments at Time of Conveyance

- 1) Should, when the Seller is required to make Delivery, the Buyer be indebted and delinquent in payment to the Seller under this or any prior transaction, the Seller shall be entitled, on the giving of notice to the Buyer, to withhold Delivery until such time that the delinquent indebtedness is satisfied; and
- 2) If the debt has not been satisfied within three [3] Business Days from the giving of such notice, the Seller shall be entitled, on the giving of a further notice to the Buyer, to cancel the contract, in which event the Buyer shall be deemed to be in default and the provisions in Rule 17.0 [Default] shall apply.
- 3) For the avoidance of doubt, a payment is not delinquent if it is subject to a genuine dispute which has been notified to the Seller.

Rule 14.0 OWNERSHIP AND PASSING OF TITLE

Unless otherwise agreed, title to goods as well as risk of loss and/or damage shall remain with the Seller until the goods have been conveyed to the Buyer at the designated point of conveyance:

- 1) On FOB Origin, Ex-Farm, Ex-Store, or FOB Basing Point contracts; title passes at the time when the goods are loaded onto the relevant method of transport and accepted by the carrier via the appropriate transport document (s).
- 2) On Delivered or Delivered Basing Point contracts; title passes at the time when goods are constructively placed, or presented for unloading, or otherwise made available at the Buyer's original destination.
- 3) On In-Store contracts; title passes at time of transfer and/or filing of documents (if required), unless and to the extent warehouse tariff, warehouse receipt, and/or storage contract assumes the risk of loss and/or damage.

Rule 15.0 REJECTION

For the purpose of this Rule, if goods are of a superior or equal quality to the contract specifications, the Buyer shall not be entitled to reject the goods, provided that the goods otherwise comply with the contract specifications.

Rule 15.1 Rejection - Quality Outside of Contract Terms

Unless otherwise agreed, goods sold on description or sample may be rejected on account of not being in accordance with description or sample, as provided under this Rule.

Rule 15.2 Destination Quality

- 1) The Buyer shall examine consignments on Arrival to ascertain by inspection or other expeditious means the quality and condition of the consignment and shall immediately advise the Seller if any consignment is not of the contractual grade or quality.
- 2) Written notification shall also be given no later than 12 noon on the Business Day following the Arrival of the goods.
- 3) This notice shall describe the actual quality of the grain and state that the Buyer rejects the consignment.
- 4) Subject to Rule 15.2.5, the Seller's liability ceases if notification of rejection has not been made in accordance with Rule 15.2.2 [Destination Quality].
- 5) Rule 15.2.4 does not prevent a Buyer from claiming in respect of defect in quality or condition of grain which could not have been detected by inspection or other expeditious means.
- 6) The Seller shall deliver and the Buyer must accept substituted deliveries for rejected goods, provided that the substituted goods arrive within the contract time or within five [5] Business Days next following the date of rejection. Where delivery is Immediate Delivery, substituted goods must arrive within three [3] Business Days.
- 7) If the Seller elects to arrange for disposal of the goods, the Buyer shall upon the Seller's request, unload, recondition and salvage the goods to the Seller's best advantage. Any reasonable expense shall be at the cost of the Seller.
- 8) If the Buyer is unable to handle the shipment as requested, it shall be the Buyer's duty to notify the Seller of this fact at the time the Buyer notifies the Seller of shipment's condition and the Seller shall dispose of the shipment.

Rule 15.3 Origin Quality

Grain that is sold for delivery, origin inspection, shall be covered by an inspection certificate of the quality contracted.

Rule 15.4 Rejection Contested

The Buyer shall on request of the Seller give notice of the grounds for rejection. Where the Seller contests rejection by the Buyer, the matter is subject to Rule 16 [Finality] and may be submitted to GTA Arbitration as per Rule 23 [Arbitration] with demurrage, any extra cartage or extra expense involved for party in default.

Rule 16.0 FINALITY

- 1) Subject to Rule 15 [Rejection], all adjustments or compensation claimed based on defect of quality or condition or weights which are apparent upon reasonable inspection must be advised by notice as soon as is practicable and no later than five [5] business days after unloading or presentation of appropriate documents.
- 2) Should a party fail to comply with these time limits and requirements for documentation and substantiation of such a claim, the provisions of Rule 23 [Arbitration] shall apply. In the event of failure to comply with Rule 16(1), all claims in regard to quality shall be void unless a GTA Arbitration Tribunal determines that the delay in making the claim was justified.

Rule 17.0 DEFAULT

- 1) A party in default of any of its obligations under a contract or who anticipates that it will default must serve notice on the other party as soon as practicable.
- 2) The notice must state the date of default or anticipated default and the nature of and reasons for the default.
- 3) The party in receipt of such notice must immediately, or as soon as is reasonably practical, notify the other party of its election to either;
 - a. affirm the contract; or
 - b. buy in, or sell against the defaulter; or
 - c. cancel all or any part of the defaulted portion.
- 4) In a case of actual default where no notice has been given, the liability will remain in force until the non defaulting party, by the exercise of due diligence, can determine the default. The party not in default must then give the defaulting party notice containing the details in (2) above and as soon as is practical thereafter advise the defaulter which of the options in 3 above it elects to pursue.
- 5) Default by either party in performance of the contract in accordance with the contract terms shall entitle the other party to damages in respect of and/or reject only the actual defaulted portion.
- 6) A party in default is liable to pay damages based on the defaulted quantity multiplied by the difference between the contract price and Fair Market Price as at the date of default, within 7 days of receipt of a demand to pay.
- 7) Where either party is dissatisfied with the ascertained Fair Market Price and damages cannot be mutually agreed, then the determination of Fair Market Price may be referred by either party for Expert Determination according to the Dispute Resolution Rules, and which shall, for the purpose of this sub-rule only, be final and binding on both parties.

- 8) On the happening of an Insolvency Event the Insolvent Party shall give notice of insolvency to the Solvent Party within 2 business days.
- 9) Unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing, any contracts between the parties will be closed out at the Fair Market Price on the business day following the giving of notice under Rule 17(8).
- 10) If notice is not given as required, the Solvent Party shall, on learning of the (or any prior) Insolvency Event, have the option of declaring the contract(s) closed-out at either the Fair Market Price on the first business day after the date when the Solvent Party first learned of the Insolvency Event, or at the Fair Market Price on the first business day after the date of the earliest Insolvency Event known to the Solvent Party.
- 11) This Rule 17 [Default] does not apply to Circle Trades except as provided by Rule 18 [Circle Trades].

Rule 18.0 CIRCLE TRADES

Rule 18.1 Settlement of Circle Trades

Where there has been a Circle Trade:

- 1) As between Buyers and Sellers in the circle, the non-presentation of documents by Sellers to their Buyers shall not be considered a breach of contract.
- 2) Subject to the terms of these Rules settlement by all parties in the Circle Trade shall be calculated on the mean contract quantity and shall be settled over the Fair Market Price on the first day for contractual delivery and invoices shall be settled between each Buyer and its Seller in the circle by payment of the differences between the Fair Market Price and the relative contract price.
- 3) Payment shall be no later than 7 Business Days from the receipt of an Invoice issued by the Buyer or the Seller
- 4) Should any party in the Circle Trade prior to the due date of payment commit any act comprehended in Rule 17 of these Rules, settlement by all parties in the Circle Trade shall be calculated at the closing out price as provided for in Rule 17, which shall be taken as a basis for settlement. In this event respective Buyers shall make payment to their Sellers or respective Sellers shall make payment to their Buyers of the difference between the closing out price and the contract Price.
- 5) All Sellers and Buyers shall give every assistance to ascertain the circle and when a circle shall have been ascertained in accordance with the applicable contract and/or clause, the same shall be binding on all parties to the circle.

Rule 19.0 PAYMENT

- 1) The Buyer is to make payment to the Seller upon presentation of an invoice identifying the quality, grade, weight, price, contract number, delivery vehicle identifier, amount owing and payment terms.
- 2) Invoices need to be accompanied by any Commercial Documents specified in the Contract.

Rule 19.1 Payment

Unless otherwise agreed, it shall be understood that invoices are subject to payment on presentation to the Buyer or its designated agent, when properly documented and substantiated by Commercial Documents and, if applicable, Weight and Quality Certificates.

Rule 19.2 Late payment

The Seller is entitled to seek from the Buyer recompense for late payment by the Buyer and may request GTA Arbitration in such occurrences.

Rule 19.3 Passing on of “Goods and Services Tax” (GST)

- 1) If GST applies to any supply made under the contract; then the Seller may, in addition to the price or any other amount or consideration expressed as payable in the contract, recover from the Buyer an additional amount on account of a GST.
- 2) Such an amount is payable by the Buyer subject to the issuing of a valid tax invoice by the Seller and is to be calculated by multiplying the price or any other amount or consideration payable by the Buyer for the supply by the prevailing GST rate.
- 3) If it is determined on reasonable grounds that the amount of the GST paid or payable on any supply made under the contract differs for any reason from the amount of the GST recovered from the Buyer including by reason of:
 - (a) an alteration in the GST law; or
 - (b) the issue of or an alteration in ruling or advice of the Commissioner of Taxation; or
 - (c) the allowance to the Seller of a refund of GST in respect of any supply made under the contract; or
 - (d) a decision of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (or its equivalent) or a court; then,
 - (e) the amount of GST recovered or recoverable from the Buyer shall be adjusted accordingly.
- 4) Notwithstanding any other provision in the contract if the imposition of a GST or any subsequent change in the GST law is accompanied by or undertaken in connection with the abolition of or reduction in any existing taxes, duties or statutory charges (“Taxes”); then, the agreement shall be reduced by the same amount as the actual total costs of the Seller (including any Taxes but excluding any input GST paid or payable by the Seller) are reduced as a consequence of the abolition or a reduction in Taxes, whether directly by way of the abolition of or reduction in Taxes paid or payable by the Seller to its suppliers or to any government, or indirectly by way of a reduction in the prices (excluding any GST) charge by the suppliers to the Seller.

Rule 20.0 NOTICES

- 1) Any notice required pursuant to these Rules shall be given in writing and delivered by hand, facsimile, telex email or other form of rapid written communication.
- 2) Any notice given orally must be confirmed in writing.
- 3) The sender bears the onus of proving that a notice was sent or received by the receiver.
- 4) Any notices issued after 1600 hours Eastern Standard Time on a Business Day shall be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.
- 5) A notice to a Broker or Agent, as opposed to the party itself, shall be a valid notice for the purpose of these Rules.

- 6) For a resale:
- a. Notices must be forwarded on without delay by the Buyer to the respective Seller or vica versa.
 - b. Any notice issued after 1600 hours Eastern Standard Time on a Business Day permissible under the contract must be forwarded on no later than 1000 hours Eastern Standard Time on the next Business Day.
 - c. Upon request, the Seller shall provide the Buyer with documentary evidence of Seller's receipt of notice.

Rule 21.0 FORCE MAJEURE

Rule 21.1 Conditions of Force Majeure

- 1) Neither the Buyer nor the Seller shall be responsible for delay in Delivery or Shipment of goods or any part thereof occasioned by any act of God, fire, flood, wind, explosion, power failure, war, embargo, act of government, strike (including dock and/ or shipping strike), lock-out, combination of workers, or civil commotion which is not due to said party's own acts or negligence, which constitute Force Majeure.
- 2) The loss of a commodity due to production risks or crop failure does not constitute Force Majeure.

Rule 21.2 Notice and Proof of Force Majeure

- 1) The party invoking Force Majeure must notify the other party within five [5] Business Days of the commencement of the occurrence, or not later than five [5] Business Days after the beginning of the contract Delivery or Shipment period, whichever is the later. Within five [5] Business Days of receiving the notice the party may request proof of the Force Majeure event and evidence that the invoking party has exerted best efforts to meet the terms of the contract. The invoking party shall have five [5] Business Days to respond. In the case of resale such information shall be passed on without delay.
- 2) Neither party shall have claim against the other for delay or non-fulfillment under this Rule provided that the party invoking the Rule shall have supplied, if so requested by the other party, satisfactory evidence justifying the delay or non-fulfillment.

Rule 21.3 Extension of Contract due to Force Majeure

- 1) Unless otherwise mutually agreed, the party invoking Force Majeure is entitled to an extension (the first extension) of a period equal to that of the delay caused by said act, but not more than thirty [30] consecutive days from the end of the delivery period.
- 2) If delivery under this Rule is still prevented at the end of the first extension period, the party not invoking the Rule shall have the option of canceling the contract as per Rule 17 [Default] or any unfulfilled part of the contractor mutually agreeing to one further extension period (the second extension) of not more than thirty [30] consecutive days.
- 3) If at the conclusion of the second extension period delivery is still prevented, the contract or an unfulfilled part thereof shall be considered in Default as per Rule 17 [Default].

Rule 22.0 EXPERT DETERMINATION

A party(s) to a contract may refer a question for non-binding resolution to GTA for Expert Determination pursuant to the Dispute Resolution Rules.

Rule 23.0 ARBITRATION

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of, relating to or in connection with a contract incorporating the Rules, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination shall be resolved by arbitration in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Rules in force at the commencement of the arbitration.

Rule 24.0 CHOICE OF LAW

- 1) This contract shall be interpreted according to and governed by the laws in force in New South Wales.
- 2) Performance of this contract is subject to orders, rules, and regulations of all government agencies, and to all causes, except as limited herein.

Rule 25.0 ASSIGNMENT

Neither party may assign its rights or obligations under a contract without the written consent of the other party, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld. All other terms and conditions pertaining to the said contract shall remain unchanged.
