GTA Courses are offered to GTA Members and Non-Members and targeted at all levels of industry experience

Navigating Trade Contracts Risk is a practical, half-day workshop designed to highlight common pitfalls and risks in grain contract execution.

With a focus on real-world examples and case studies, this course explores key contractual considerations and challenges that arise in day-to-day trading.

Delivered by an experienced legal practitioner, the workshop provides valuable insights and tools to help participants avoid costly mistakes. Ideal for those looking to strengthen their practical understanding of trade contract risks.

Topics covered:

- Common Pitfalls in Trade Contract Execution Identifying frequent errors and oversights that lead to disputes or financial loss.
- Contract Risk Areas and Contract Clauses Explained A practical breakdown of key concepts and clauses that carry risk.
- Case Studies: Lessons from Real Contract Disputes Interactive analysis of real-world examples and outcomes.
- Best Practices for Managing Risk and Strengthening Execution Practical strategies and tools to reduce exposure and improve compliance.

Who is this workshop for?

NCR workshop is designed for grain industry professionals involved in contract negotiation, execution, and management. This includes traders, contract administrators, logistics personnel, and commercial managers who have a working knowledge of trade contracts but seek to strengthen their practical understanding of risk areas. The course is particularly valuable for those looking to avoid common pitfalls, better understand legal implications, and improve confidence in handling contract-related issues.
